VOLUME XXVII Number 5

February 3, 2017

Greetings church –

So in an effort to lead in hospitality I think it would be good to start at the beginning! While many of you will know me by now, I realized that some of the newer folks won't. So I'm expanding the 10 foot part of the 5-10-Link rule out a LOT farther.

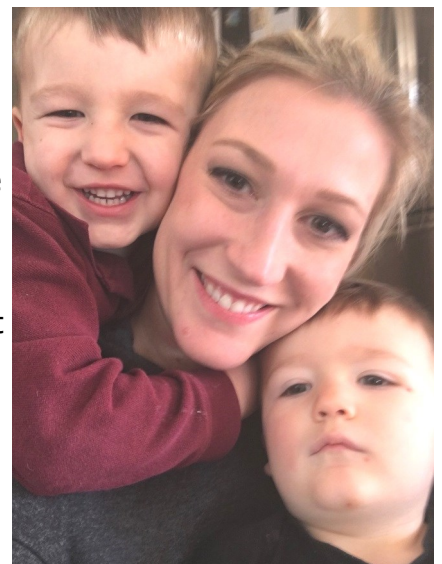

Hello, my name is Patrick Grafton, and I'm your youth director here at New Haven, and I'm incredibly thrilled to worship with you every Sunday! It's so great to meet you. I love our church home where we seek to follow Jesus – even at times when we fall short of the mark. How I got here to New Haven is through my family. As the Pastor's family, I immediately felt a strong connection, and part of the ministry that Cindy and Peter have worked on here. My wife (Nicole), and our oldest son Cohen moved back here from the Dallas area to be closer to his Cici, Grampa, Poppy, Lady, aunts, uncles, and cousins! I grew up in the uppercase "C" Catholic church, and have always "been around" faith, though in truth it was always at much larger churches. And there is truly something to be said for a small community church like ours that shares this journey together in such a family way. Since I can't give it all away here so we have more to talk about in person, ask me about youth ministry, and how that happened. God only knows. literally, He only knows.

Back to family for a second: Our move back here to Tulsa has been the best decision we've ever made. As someone who's grandfather's both passed before I was born, losing both Grandma's by the time I was 16, and living half the US away from my cousins it has been such a blessing for our now two boys (Anderson joined us here in OK) along with Nicole and I. My wife and I are both OSU grads, and bleed orange with a deep love of OSU as it brought us together when we met there as members of the OSU Cowboy Marching Band. Now you have a small snippet into who I am, and I leave many blanks so when we cross paths and are spending time together being hospitable, I'll have so much more to share and you'll have some conversation starters! :)

In the vein of hospitality I think it's also a great time for you to meet some of the regular members of our youth group if you don't know them already. They are a spirited bunch to say the least, but all of them have great stories of their own starting with their search for a safe place that they feel welcome and at home, just like all of us grown up types!

I've been thinking for the past two weeks since Dr. Ozier's visit how the youth could begin to do our part to hospitality, and I think this is a great start! What will follow is THEIR stories in THEIR words with a reflection from me on their lives as a member of our youth group! We'll throw in some pictures of them too so you can see their shiny faces, and big smiles!!

Make it a blessed week,
Patrick

UMPTENAGERS DAY TRIP!

On Tuesday, February 21st, the Umpteenagers will travel downtown to visit the Central Tulsa City-County Library. There have been many new improvements and updates made since it was last renovated. We will congregate at New Haven UMC at 10:45 am, board the bus to have lunch at the "Chalkboard" restaurant, the proceed to our 1:00 pm tour of the library for 45 minutes. We should arrive back at the church by 2:30 pm. Your only expense will be for lunch. All seniors are invited and we hope to fill our bus for this trip! It's a wonderful time for fellowship and learning more about our community!

We will visit the Tulsa Space and Air Museum on March 21st (a change from our original plans, so mark your calendars for the new date and destination!)

REPLY FROM DAD....

Dear Son,

I kNOW that astroNOMy, ecoNOMics, and oceaNOgraphy are eNOugh to keep even an hoNOR student busy. Do NOt forget that the pursuit of kNOWledge is a NOble task, and you can never study hard eNOugh.

Love, Dad.

Dear Missy,

What is coming up in the way of Missions that I might be able to get involved in?

Signed,
Ready to Serve

Dear Ready to Serve,

Here are some upcoming events:

Bus Stop Ministry – Every school day from 7:00 am to 8:30 am, our church gym is open for children from elementary age to high school to come in and enjoy a snack, play games, do homework, visit, and get out of the weather. Pick the days that you'd like to serve and sign up on the Bus Stop calendar on the hallway table.

Respite Care – Children with special needs and their siblings come for a fun time away from home. First quarter events are scheduled for Saturday, February 11 and March 11, 3 pm to 7 pm. A Ministry Moment highlighting this mission will be delivered on Sunday, March 5. Contact Rose Unterschuetz at 918-688-7128 or tulsarose@sbcglobal.net if you'd like to serve.

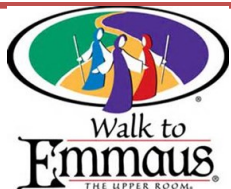

Day Center for the Homeless – Our next meal to serve is on Friday, February 24. A Ministry Moment is scheduled for Sunday, February 19 to learn more how you can help. Sign up sheets will be on the hallway table soon. Contact Phil Roberts at 918-671-2055 or phil.roberts@cox.net to help prepare or serve the meal.

In-service Sunday – Periodically, the entire New Haven congregation is involved in “doing worship” through hands-on projects. Pastor Cindy ends our regular worship services a few minutes early and then everyone has the opportunity to get up out of the pews and “do” worship by participating in the service project. Our next In-service Sunday will be March 19. Details coming soon.

Crosses of Love – Decorating event for the Crosses of Love will be held sometime in March in conjunction with the “Let's Get Crafty” group. A Ministry Moment to highlight this mission is scheduled for Sunday, March 26. Blessing will be on Palm Sunday, April 9.

Blessings,
Missy

The “Walk to Emmaus” Informational Meeting 12:15 Sunday, February 5th

Interested in learning more about the “Walk to Emmaus” spiritual weekend? Come with your questions to an informational meeting this coming Sunday, February 5th, at 12:15 in the Parlor! The “Walk to Emmaus” is a spiritual renewal program that encourages the participation of Christians of many denominations. It is grounded theologically and institutionally in The Upper Room ministry of the General Board of Discipleship of the United Methodist Church. The three day Emmaus experience begins Thursday evening and concludes Sunday evening. Men and women attend separate weekends.

At our informational meeting, there will be several individuals that have attended the “Walk to Emmaus” on hand to answer any questions you might have! De Colores!!
