*Epiphany?
What is it?*

I’m glad you asked!

Epiphany, also known as “Three King’s Day,” was celebrated last week on Friday, January the 6th. The feast of Epiphany recalls the Gospel of Matthew in which the Magi from the east came to Bethlehem to worship baby Jesus. So, it’s the 12th day of Christmas for some, the day the Wise men arriving for others, and also the day that Jesus was baptized by his cousin. But that’s not all!

Some of us remember the song written about Epiphany called “The 12 Days of Christmas” where “...my true love sent to me, 12 drummers drumming, 11 pipers piping, ten lords a’leaping”... Someone figured out if you add up all the gifts in this song, it would cost $107,300!! By the 12th day, 364 presents would have been delivered!

Also, think about this. Whoever received all the gifts would have to rent a storage unit and have a lake to contain it all! The 42 swans (six per day for seven days) are the most expensive gift at $1,000 each.

Now, it wouldn’t be quite so costly if you agree with the theory that the “five golden rings” ized the baby born in the manger was Almighty God who had come to live among us!

Other traditions celebrate Epiphany in similar ways. Roman Catholics commemorate it as the coming of the Wise men or Magi. Greek Orthodox churches celebrate Epiphany as the baptism of Jesus and his first miracle at the wedding at Cana when he turned water into wine. In both traditions are ring-necked pheasants... not jewelry. Some say it’s not “four calling birds,” but “four colly birds (blackbirds)” (which means a total of 36 by the end of the song!)

Epiphany? What is it?

On a more serious note... the word “Epiphany” is a Greek word meaning “a sudden, brilliant realization”. On Epiphany, the Wise men suddenly real-the idea is the same: it’s the revelation of Christ to the world – whether as an infant or as a 30-year-old.

As we look beyond Epiphany and toward this New Year ahead, we give thanks to God for the gift of Christ with us. Let us begin the year anew, remembering that God is indeed with us! - Pastor Cindy Paula's Perspective . . .

Happy New Year! It is great to be back into a normal routine with our children!!!

Beginning Sunday, January 8th we will have a new schedule for our children's Sunday afternoon activities. The changes are as follows:

4:00 – 5:00 pm Celebration Singers and W.E.B. are combined. We will meet upstairs in our Sunday school room. This is open to children 4 years old – 5th grade. You may contact Lindsay Morgan for more info regarding choir lmboles@gmail.com and me, pauljeanfox@icloud.com regarding other children's activities.

5:00 – 6:00 pm Imagination Station Creative Art will meet upstairs in the Sunday school room. This is open to children 4 years old – 5th grade. Children will have many opportunities to explore with a wide array of art media to create their masterpieces!

5:00 – 6:00 pm Footprints Liturgical Dancers will meet in the Sanctuary. This is open to children and youth in 3rd – 12th grade. You may contact Deena Smith for more information, Deena@sixbyte.com

The Children's Ministry Team looks forward to working with our children as we worship God while using the gifts and talents He has given each of us.

Sharing the joy,

Ms. Paula

THE FAITH OF A MOCKINGBIRD NEW STUDY BEGINS SUNDAY, JAN. 8th AT 9:45 AM NEW HAVEN UMC PARLOR

In "The Faith of a Mockingbird," based on Harper Lee's "To Kill a Mockingbird," pastor and author Matt Rawle uses Lee's beloved characters to explore our place in the world and God's story, as well as what it means to live out a hopeful faith in a broken world. Is this classic book still relevant for us in 2017? Not already connected to a small group on Sunday mornings? Join Roundtable Connection Group in the Parlor (new class location) as we have fun discussing this classic. For more information, contact Robin Steven at rltstevens@mac.com

UMW MEETING

The Susanna Circle will meet on January 12th at 10:00 a.m. in the Parlor. We will be working on projects for the Day School and also planning our mission projects for the new year.

Umpteenagers to Visit Jewish Museum

The Umpteenagers will leave the church at 11:15 a.m. on Tuesday, January 17, for lunch at the Delta Café before proceeding to the Sherwin Miller Museum of Jewish Art on 71st Street for a tour through this unique facility of culture and history. Cost will be $5.50 per person unless 10 or more of us attend, which will reduce the admission price to $3.00 per person. We will return to the church around 2:00 p.m. Telephone Eileen Walker at (918) 286-6420 if you will attend; if that's too much effort, come on anyway.

Note of thanks

It hardly seems like it's been a year since I joined New Haven UMC. I've learned so many things from the sermons as well as in the Fellowship Class and have enjoyed the inspiring music in both services. Many of you have welcomed me with your smiles and hugs, warm greetings and handshakes. It has indeed been a wonderful year of worshiping with you and I thank you for helping me feel so "at home".

Peace & Blessings, Alon J. Soderfelt

LET'S GET CRAFTY!!!

Have some talent you're dying to share with people in our community but don't know how?

Have just a little and are still wanting to join in?

Have none at all and unsure if you can even help but want to?

We need you!!!!

The Let's Get Crafty group is morphing into a community craft project on Sunday afternoons!

Our first project, hats for a children's home and for children in need in our own community, hats that are sure to bring a smile with them!

Needed, any level of sewing experience and sergers!

Little to no sewing experience but want to learn? No problem, delighted to teach!

Never sewed a stitch and afraid of the high speed needle? No problem, we need people to cut!

Terrible with Scissors? No problem, we need people to lay out patterns and draw around them for people to cut!

Can't even trace a pattern piece? No problem, we need people to fetch and tote and keep things organized!

Got a free space Sunday the 22nd, around 4:30 PM? We need you!!!!

We've got a whole lot of fleece already from Regina's Stash for the class, but donations are always welcome if you have a stash that you need to cut down on or you see a good color in the remnant lot. Don't buy full price!!!! ;) Can also use spools of Serger thread in most colors, especially white, orange, yellow, and green!

Come join us and get your Crafty on!!!

Corner

Dear Missy,

I know our former resident at Exodus House graduated in December. When will we get a new resident? Can you tell me how I can help?

Signed,
Wanting to Know

Dear Wanting,

Great questions! Here's the exciting news.... please welcome Wesley Factor, our newest resident at Exodus House, Tulsa.

Wesley came to Exodus House on Thursday, January 5. He is very excited about the apartment furnished by New Haven UMC. He is also very interested in worshipping with us, however, he does not have a car so if you are willing to pick him up and deliver him back to his apartment, please contact Jan Boyd at 918-691-1622 or revmumz99@cox.net. Wesley works as a detail specialist at the Mr Klean Car Wash at 71st and Sheridan. He loves sports of all kinds and was active in the mixed martial arts arena touring the world earlier in his career.

The Exodus House in Tulsa is located at 2624 E Newton Street. As members and guest of New Haven, we furnish a one-bedroom apartment (apt F) – complete with linens, cooking and eating utensils, decorations and furniture. The apartment is provided free of charge, except for the cost of electricity. Upon completion of the program, the resident may take all the furnishings and contents when they move. Many thanks to those who helped with the furnishing of the apartment for Wesley.

Blessings,
Missy
