

Rev. James Graham

“Are You Willing?”

In the 19th Chapter of the Gospel of Matthew, Jesus is asked a question by a rich young man, “Teacher, what good deed must I do to have eternal life?” Of course, Jesus puts his finger on the pulse of this poor guy’s struggle. He was a good guy, but his money came first. Jesus’ response was sell everything you own, give it to the poor, and come and be my disciple. The young man went away sad, because he wasn’t willing to do what Jesus asked. This text isn’t really about money, but instead about commitment.

Jesus has given us a mission, “to make disciples for the transformation of the world,” but this man’s question echoes loudly in my ears. If we are really going to be faithful to Jesus, we have to ask our selves this question, “What are YOU willing to do and give?” What is your commitment level? Yesterday, we honored our living saints who have contributed so much to making New Haven UMC what it is today. The reality is, however, that in order for our congregation to continue the proud tradition they have established, we, the younger generation, are going to have to step up. We are going to have to engage fully with our time, talents, leadership, and yes, even our treasure to continue the work of making disciples.

In order to do that, we are all going to have to make sacrifices. So, Jesus’ question echoes in my ears. What are we willing to do and give in order to be his disciple? This question has to be answered by every one of us. What is your answer?

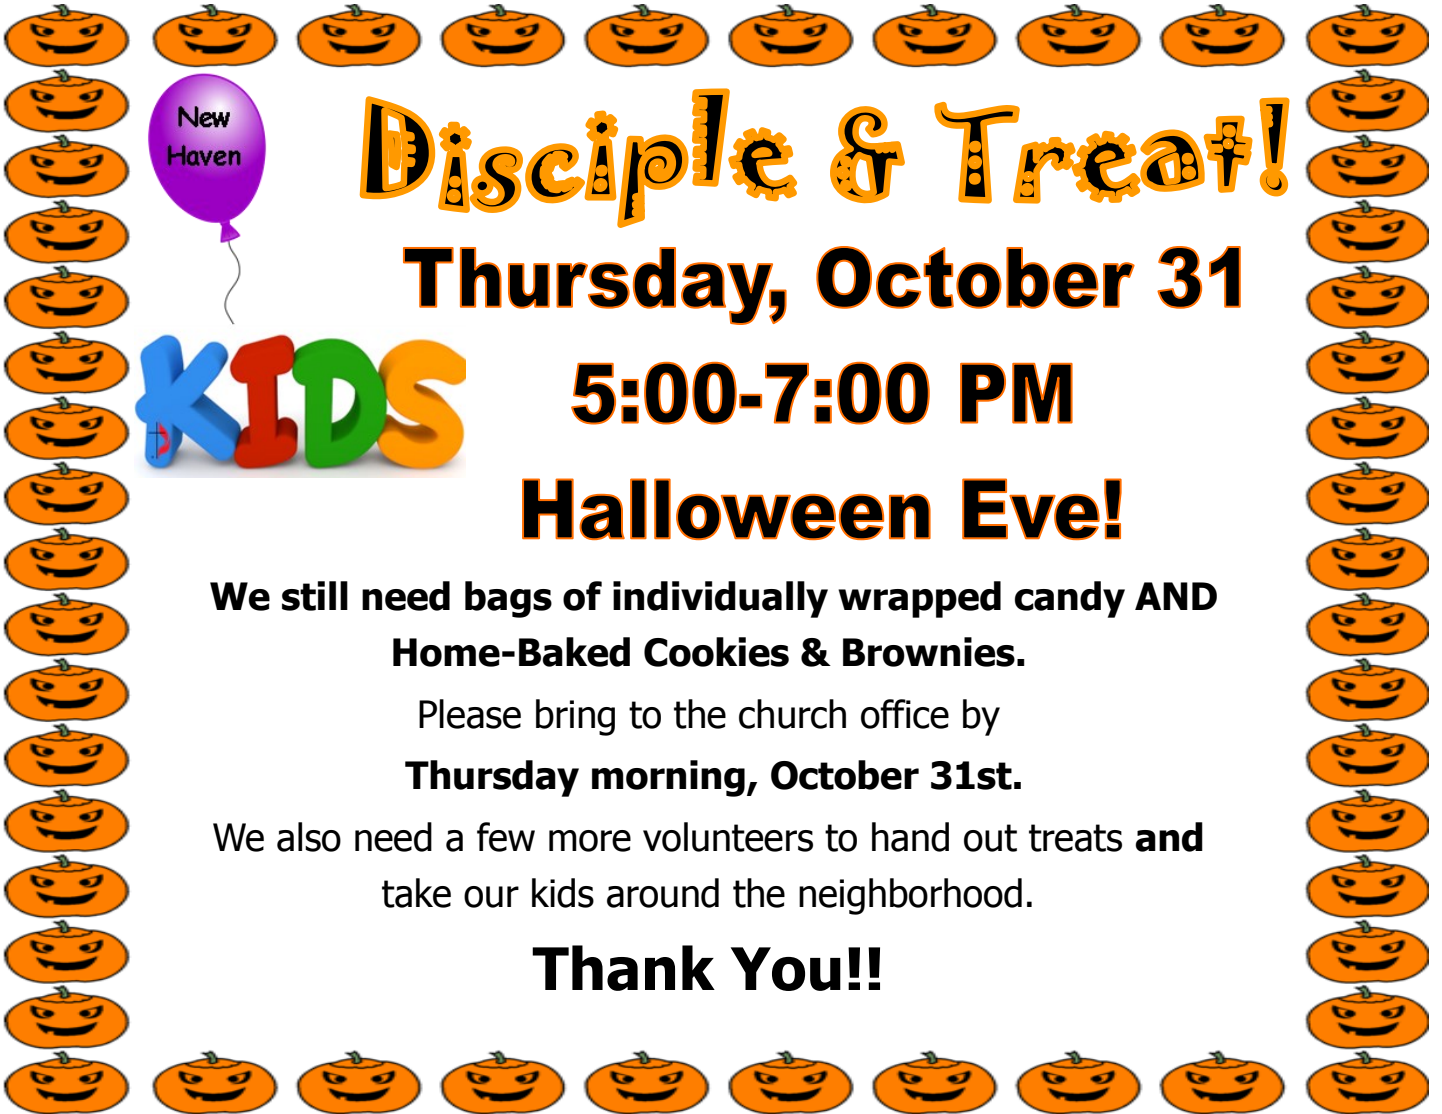

Praying every blessing upon you!

We are in final 2 weeks of our Mountain of Food drive. The funds raised go to the United Methodist supported Restore Hope Ministries to stock their food pantry. Every week Restore Hope volunteers help families with their hunger challenges; over 4,000 families each year. Food insufficiency is an early indicator of pending homelessness so helping households with their food needs can stave off the even bigger hurdle of becoming homeless. Every dollar we raise gets matched 1 to 1 by the George Kaiser Family Foundation, so our giving doubles immediately!

We have exceeded our goal of $7,500, with a total through Sunday, October $8028.00! Our congregation is a generous one, and if you still want to give, the funds are certainly needed. Just write your check to New Haven UMC and put Mountain (of Food) on the memo line. Thanks to everyone who has helped us achieve our goal of growing our impact each and every year.

Our giving makes a huge difference to so many. Last year our church alone, through our Mountain, stocked the Restore Hope pantry for routine weekly needs (outside the 2 holiday drives) well into January. That's over 2 1/2 months of basic needs!

Downtown Tunnels, History and Architecture Tour!

Join the Umpteenagers on Tuesday, November 19, for a tour of historic downtown buildings, experience the infamous tunnels and hear about Tulsa's internationally known art deco buildings. Church bus will depart at 10:30 a.m. We'll be eating Wanda J's at Greenwood, after we finish the tour. Lunch is 'on your own'. We'll return to the church about 2:45 - 3:00 p.m., depending on lunch service. Wanda J does not start frying the chicken until she sees the whites of our eyes!

Please Note: We'll be walking about 4-5 blocks. It'll be slow since we're looking at the architecture and hearing the history, but there are only a few places where you can sit and rest. There are some stairs and two full staircases. At one point we actually have to come upstairs out of the tunnel, go around a corner in the 320 Boston Building and then back down other stairs to get into the final stretch of tunnel. The plan is for our wonderful driver David Toalson to fetch the bus and bring it to us so we don't have to retrace our steps back to where the bus was parked. Did you know that Tulsa has it's own Kennedy Compound? Did you know that Tulsa's art deco is considered one of the top three collections in the country?

Sign up so we'll know who is coming on the Sign Up sheet in as you enter the sanctuary. We have limited seats on the bus of course. If you have questions, call Susan Harris at 918-830-3276.
